Michigan Sexual Assault Hotline. This is a confidential, 24-hour sexual assault hotline will provide crisis support and referrals to survivors and their friends and family. The hotline is staffed by professional crisis counselors with specialized training in crisis intervention, sexual assault, child sexual abuse, victim's rights, health options and Michigan law. Hotline staff can help connect victims with community-based sexual assault programs that offer additional counseling, advocacy and support. Call 1-855-VOICES4.

Human Trafficking Resource Center. The National Human Trafficking Resource Center is a 24/7 hotline that provides callers with comprehensive services, including crisis intervention, urgent and non-urgent referrals for services, tip reporting, information on human trafficking and technical assistance for the anti-trafficking field. The center connects callers with referrals and resources in their local area using an up-to-date national database of over 3000 referral sources and first responders. Call (888)373-7888 For more information please visit, <http://www.polarisproject.org/>

The National Sexual Assault Hotline. The Rape Abuse Incest National Network Online Hotline is the nation's first online crisis hotline and provides free, anonymous help and high-quality support services online 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Additionally with more than 1,000 community rape crisis center partners, RAINN provides help by phone to victims, survivors and loved ones across the country Call 800-656-HOPE (4673) For more information please visit, <https://www.rainn.org/get-help>

Men Can Stop Rape. The Men Can Stop Rape Initiative mobilizes male youth to prevent men's violence against women. We build young men's capacity to challenge harmful aspects of traditional masculinity, to value alternative visions of male strength, and to embrace their vital role as allies with women and girls in fostering healthy relationships and gender equity. For more information please visit, <http://www.mencanstoprape.org/>

National Alliance to End Sexual Violence. Leaders from statewide organizations joined with local rape crisis centers and prominent national advocates to create the National Alliance to End Sexual Violence. Its mission is to provide a missing voice in Washington for state coalitions and local programs advocating and organizing against sexual violence and for survivors. For more information please visit, <http://www.endsexualviolence.org/>

The National Center for Victims of Crime. This center has become the nation's leading resource and advocacy organization for victims of all types of crime and for the people who serve them. They have enabled more people to understand that justice for victims involves more than holding offenders accountable for their crimes. Their work involves providing victims full participation in the criminal justice process and the means to overcome the physical, emotional, and financial. For more information please visit, <https://victimsofcrime.org/>
